

HAGIOS

Singing and Dancing Prayer

Journey to CHARTRES with Nanni Kloke and Helge Burggrabe
26th of March – 1 st of April 2017

We want to welcome the spring with singing and dancing - and venture further into our labyrinth of life, freely adapted from Augustinus: „ Sing and dance, otherwise the angels in heaven don't know what to do with you...!“ The center of the journey is the Song-Cycle HAGIOS (ancient greek: holy) of composer Helge Burggrabe, for which Nanni Kloke, dancer and choreographer has created new dances. It is about the inspirational connection between song and dance, which can lead you to a space which we, as human beings, sense as holy and healing. We enter a space of deepest belonging to all living, the creation. The base of this is the experience of the own body as an instrument and to dis-cover your own voice, which connects with the Harmony Method of Nanni Kloke. The guided tours in the cathedral will awaken our sensibility for the rhythm and gestures of the structure and make the sculptures and figures of the windows accessible.

The basic concept of the journey to Chartres with Helge Burggrabe

Whoever enters the cathedral of Chartres, experiences a harmony, a many-voiced symphony of stone, glass, space, figures and stories. Out of marveling over the elaborate interconnectedness of the different elements arises the question of the construction plan: according to which score do they play?

It is a complex score, which connects all items and at the same time is open for us to continue to write on and play. The cathedral of Chartres is a total work of art, which is able to address to the whole human being and even challenges it: as an artist, as a seeker, as a musician, as an architect, as an art historian and as a mystic. All aspects within us are being addressed and one watches and listens. The holistic approach is the base of my work: These journeys address body, mind and soul at the same time and facilitate detailed perceptions and experiences all the way to your biography. One approach is the daily guided tour which, depending on the main focus of the journey, connects you to the mystery of the place.

Another approach of each journey is music: Music us to experience the cathedral as a soundscape and can - especially at Chartres - be the key for a deep spiritual experience of space and silence. Precognition of music is not needed. Everybody is very welcome!

The special opening hours for the group are very valuable. They are possible only though years of very good collaboration with the chapter: the experience of the silent cathedral in the morning before the official opening, singing and contemplation in the roman crypt, the walk of the labyrinth and the ascent into the buttress of the cathedral.
